Carl Fischer is an Ivy League graduate (Cornell 1976 BS Structural Engineering) and third generation real estate developer. Carl began his investing career in the 1970's when he was employed as a rocket scientist at Kennedy Space Center in Cape Canaveral, Florida. His motivation was to build wealth through higher-yield investments while simultaneously reducing tax exposure. He is presently one of the principals of EntrustCAMA Self-Directed Retirement Plans LLC serving Pennsylvania, Delaware, Southern New Jersey and the Western half of West Virginia. The EntrustCama headquarters opened in Spring House, PA in November 2003. There are also new offices operating in Pittsburgh, PA and Cherry Hill, NJ.

In addition to his hands on experience, he frequently leads seminars(CEU's) to many groups including investors and brokers, CPA's, financial advisors, attorneys, and mortgage professionals about the legality, process, power and possibilities of IRA, 401k, and qualified plan self-direction. Carl has additional expertise in non-traditional investments with retirement plans and Educational Savings and Health Savings Accounts.

Carl has implemented plans and managed over 20 million dollars in real estate transactions. His real estate investments include commercial and residential properties, including real property, notes, and mortgages. He has been able to increase his personal net worth and control many endeavors with the self-direction tools available.
