Marc P. Riddell Memorial Scholarship Application $1,000 Scholarship

The Chester County Estate Planning Council brings together attorneys, trust officers, accountants, financial planners, wealth managers, investment planners, stockbrokers, insurance agents, appraisers, realtors and nonprofit planned giving officers.

What is Estate Planning?

- Estate Planners arrange for the protection, orderly administration and disposition of a client's wealth in accordance with their wishes.
- Estate planners are especially called upon for major life events such as birth, marriage, divorce, sudden money, inheritance, business succession, incapacity and death.
- Estate planning requires expertise in state property, probate and trust laws; and tax laws—federal and state income, gift, inheritance, estate, and generation-skipping transfer tax.
- Estate planning areas include:
 - ⇒ Creating a will
 - ⇒ Setting up durable power of attorney
 - ⇒ Naming an estate executor to oversee the terms of the will
 - ⇒ Establishing a guardian for living dependents
 - ⇒ Deciding beneficiaries on plans such as life insurance, IRAs and 401(k)s
 - ⇒ Setting up trust accounts in the name of beneficiaries
 - ⇒ Philanthropy planning to arrange for estate gifts to charities.

Guidelines

The Chester County Planning Council Marc P. Riddell Scholarship awards :

- $1,000 academic scholarships
- to West Chester University students
- entering junior or senior year
- pursuing business studies and considering a career in estate planning.

The CCEPC Scholarship includes complimentary CCEPC membership:

- for CCEPC monthly meetings during the student's college years, and
- for CCEPC monthly meetings 2 years post-graduation.

CCEPC meetings offer students networking, mentoring, and learning opportunities as they consider careers in the estate planning field.

ELIGIBILITY

Scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis to students with a GPA of at least 3.0 who, in the judgment of the CCEPC Scholarship Committee, best exemplify:

- Strong leadership skills
- Strong spirit of volunteerism/motivation to help others
- Strong aspirations to explore the estate planning field
